

Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board & the City of Minneapolis

12th Annual Earth Day Watershed Clean Up

April 22, 2006

Earth Day Schedule:

9:30 - 12pm

Clean Up (register at clean up sites)

Celebration Activities (at designated sites listed below)

Clean Up Sites:

Minnehaha Creek

Lake Nokomis & Hiawatha

Cedar Lake

Grass Lake

Diamond Lake

Powderhorn Lake

Mississippi River SE

Mississippi River S

Mississippi River S

Shingle Creek

Bassett's Creek

Mississippi River NE

Father Hennepin Bluff Park

Bluff Street Park

Lynnhurst Comm. Center, 50th & W Minnehaha Pkwy

Nokomis Community Center, 2401 E Minnehaha Pkwy

Parking lot @ W 25th St. & Cedar Lake Pkwy

Kenny Park @ 1328 W 58th St.

Pearl Park @ 414 E Diamond Lake Rd

Powderhorn Community Center, 3400 15th Ave. S

Franklin Avenue Bridge, east side of river

West River Road & 36th St.

West River Road & 24th St.

Creekview Community Center, 5001 Irving Ave. N

J.D. Rivers Picnic Area, Glenwood Ave. & Washburn Ave.

Edgewater Park, Marshall St. & Lowry Ave. NE

6th Ave. SE & Main St.

1920 1st St. S

Celebration Sites

Prospect Park

Nokomis Community Center

Lynnhurst Community Center

Edgewater Park

Powderhorn Park

Longfellow Park

Pearl Park

Creekview Park

Kenny Park

For more information, contact the Earth Day hotline at (612) 313-7722, or check the Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board's website @

www.minneapolisparks.org

The Earth Day Watershed Clean Up Event is a collaborative effort between the Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board, the City of Minneapolis Solid Waste and Recycling, Hennepin County Environmental Services and neighborhood organizations. Special thanks to our corporate sponsors Barr Engineering and Bryn Mawr Soap.

Cleaning up our streets and yards, helps clean up our lakes and rivers!

