2006 SUMMER RECREATION CAMPS

DATES: Seven, one week sessions will be offered from June 19 through August 4. Camps will not operate on July 3-4.

REGISTRATION: Enrollment is limited and pre-registration is required. A non-refundable, $25 deposit is required for each session; the remainder of the payment is due in full two weeks before each session starts. Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

OPEN HOUSE: Wednesday, March 22; 4pm – 8pm at the Gilliam Building, 77 Reads Way, New Castle, DE. Staff will be on hand to accept registrations and answer any questions you may have.

SCHOLARSHIPS: A limited number of need-based scholarships are available for the full day camps. Applications are provided upon request.

ACTIVITIES: Daily camp programming includes arts & crafts, fitness and nature activities, sports games and contests, and special visitors.

FIELD TRIPS: Full day camps include two field trips per week. Children will be transported to sites that offer bowling, ice skating, miniature golf, roller skating and swimming, and to programs at Ashland Nature Center, Brandywine Zoo, Carousel Park, Hagley Museum, and Rockwood Park. The field trips at each camp location will vary, and not all camp locations will travel to all of the listed program sites.

CAMP LOCATIONS

Talley Day Park – Full day camp (9am – 3:30pm) with Early Bird service available at 7:30am. The natural surroundings of Talley Day Park are combined with the Brandywine Hundred Library to provide a fun-filled camp with educational opportunities. Nature hikes and library programs will be offered throughout the week. A camp t-shirt is provided; parents should supply their child with a non-refrigerated bag lunch and drink each day.
