United States Representatives Hear About Theft of Homes and Due Process Violations by Courts

Congressman Conyers and Senator Leahy requests list of cases, venue, judges and issues

Last week members of AHRC News Services asked the staff of Congressman John Conyers - Chair of the United States House Judiciary Committee to open an investigation on the rampant theft of homes and property using the courtrooms across America.

This week one of our editors Taffy Rice and her husband Andy Rice and 28 members of the group We the People Radio and Family Rights Radio met with Congressman Conyers and Senator Patrick Leahy, Chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee. They asked the congressmen to begin an investigation of Due Process violations and theft of Americans' homes by deception using the America's courtrooms.

They have asked that we send them a summary of the the cases to include :

Case Numbers:

Venue: Which Courthouse

Judges Involved:

Issues: Due Process Violation, Fraud Upon the Court, Theft by Deception, Sham lawsuits, Non-performance by Court, RICO. Fraud etc.

If you are a homeowner whose rights were violated and a victim of theft by deception and fraud, please email, fax or mail us a copy and a summary of your lawsuits. We will include it in the summary we will send to the Judiciary Committee at the U. S. Congress

All information will be held in the strictest confidence.
