

Rules to be Mindful of

1. When money is received from any members, outstanding balances are paid first, followed by late fees, interest, and finally the annual dues.
2. If you have a dispute over the balance of the account, all monies must still be paid. After decision of dispute, funds can be refunded.
3. Whenever you want to remodel or change the appearance of your lot or home, it must be approved by the architectural committee.
4. If you decide to sell or rent your home, you must notify the association of how to contact you.
5. Should any information the association has on file becomes outdated or incorrect, you must supply the Board of Directors or Managing Agent with the new information.
