PUBLIC MEETING

PROPOSED EIGHTH AVENUE BIKE LANE

Date: Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Time: 6:00 - 7:30 p.m.

Place: Fulton Center Auditorium

119 Ninth Avenue (between West 17th and 18th Streets)

The Transportation Planning Committee of Manhattan Community Board 4 (CB4) is hosting a public meeting to discuss the proposal by the New York City Department of Transportation (NYCDOT) to create a partially protected bicycle lane on Eighth Avenue from West 14th Street to West 23rd Street. Public comments are welcome and encouraged. A presentation by DOT on their proposal will begin at 6:00 p.m., questions on the proposal will begin at 6:20 p.m. and comments on the proposal (estimated) to begin at 6:45 p.m. Comments should be limited to 2 minutes. Please visit NYCDOT website to obtain information on the bike path at www.nyc.gov/html/dot/html/bicyclists/installsched.shtml.

If you cannot attend and wish for your comments to be considered by CB4 in their recommendations to DOT, please send an e-mail to rschoonbeek@manhattancb4.org.
