Invest in our community's future

Youth Job Connection prepares Charlotte's youth ages 14-18 for the workforce by providing job readiness training and placement assistance. Employers save time and money by getting qualified, pre-screened applicants who have made a commitment to their future.

Partner Benefits

When you hire a certified Youth Job Connection applicant, you are making an investment in your community. More importantly, you are making an investment in tomorrow's workforce. As one of our business partners, you will receive the following benefits:

- Youth who have completed multi-tiered training in customer service, job readiness and financial education
- Specialized training available for employers that hire multiple Youth Job Connection applicants (ServSafe, CPR, Lifeguard, Safety / OSHA Training, Basic Retail & Cashier Training)
- Pre-screened applicants
- No more costly classified ads or job fairs
- Not having to sort through hundreds of resumes
- On-going support by Youth Job Connection staff
- Community recognition
- And best of all, it's free!

MYEP

MAYOR'S YOUTH EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

Take your commitment to the community one step further and provide career-based experience to a high school senior (particularly students from Charlotte-Mecklenburg FOCUS schools) through the Mayor's Youth Employment Program.

As a component of the Youth Job Connection, MYEP provides older youth the opportunity to explore careers of their interest before graduation. Only high school seniors who are certified by the Youth Job Connection and have completed the application process are eligible for the MYEP.
