COME TO THE HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE

In place of the December 15 Homeowners' Forum, there will be a Pot Luck Holiday Open House in the Clubhouse from 6:30 to 8:30 PM on Tuesday, December 8. All Highline Meadows unit owners and all residents – especially the children – are invited to come and join in an early evening of fun and socializing in celebration of the multiple and multi-cultural heritage holidays being celebrated within our community. Bring finger foods (please, no chips) or holiday baked goods to share with your friends and neighbors. The Association will provide soda, coffee and tea. Santa will be present with candy canes and tokens for all of the children. Keepsake photos of the children with Santa will be taken and given to all. Please RSVP to TMMC to give us an idea of how many adults and children to plan for. We look forward to celebrating the holidays with you!

2010 FORUM & BOARD MEETING SCHEDULES

Your Highline Meadows Condominium Association Homeowners' Forums will be held at 7:00 PM in the Clubhouse on the third Tuesday of the month, except in August (HMCA Annual Meeting) and December (Holiday Break) throughout 2010. The HMCA Board of Directors' Meetings will be held at 7:00 PM on the second Wednesday of the month, also in the Clubhouse – except in December (Holiday Break) – during 2010.

THE COLONEL'S SECRET REVEALED

According to MSNBC, here is Chef's Ron Douglas' analysis of the ingredients and his suggestion for duplicating Kentucky Fried Chicken's long-time and very closely guarded, secret original eleven herbs and spices recipe:

1 teaspoon ground oregano — 1 teaspoon chili powder — 1 teaspoon ground sage
 1 teaspoon dried basil — 1 teaspoon dried marjoram — 1 teaspoon pepper
 2 teaspoons salt — 2 tablespoons paprika — 1 teaspoon onion salt
 1 teaspoon garlic powder — 2 tablespoons Accent

SMILE – YOU'RE ON CANDID CAMERA!

A man was driving through an intersection when a traffic camera flashed. He thought his picture had been taken for exceeding the speed limit or driving through a red light, even though he knew that he was not doing either one. Just to be sure, he went around the block and passed the same spot, driving even more slowly through the green light, but again the camera flashed. He thought this was quite funny, so he slowed down even more and again verified that the light was green as he drove past the area. The traffic camera flashed yet again! He tried a fourth time with the same caution and got the same result. The fifth time, he was laughing when the camera flashed as he rolled through the green light – this time at a snail's pace. Two weeks later, he got five traffic fine letters in the mail for driving without a seat belt.

MAIL FROM YOUR ASSOCIATION

Mail from your Highline Meadows Condominium Association is sent to you via the US Postal Service to your "address of record" as listed in the official files of the Association. Mailing to your "address of record" constitutes official and legally-required notice and you are legally responsible for the contents of any such mail even if you have not personally received it or read it. It is in your best interest to keep your mailing address listing up-to-date in the TMMC office.

ALCOHOL / DRUG / GAMBLING PROBLEM?

Do you – or does someone you know – have a substance abuse or obsessive gambling problem? Help is available from many non-religious, no cost, 12-step group programs in the Metro Denver area. The information phone numbers for some of these groups are:

Alcoholics Anonymous: 303-322-4400 Cocaine Anonymous: 303-421-5120

Gamblers Anonymous: 303-754-7119 Marijuana Anonymous: 303-607-7516

Narcotics Anonymous: 303-852-DRUG (3784)

EMERGENCY CALLS – LEAVE A PHONE NUMBER!

If you leave a message on the Emergency Line at TMMC, you must include not only your name, specific unit address and the details of the emergency, but also the telephone number where you can be reached. Emergency call-handlers do not have access to office records overnight or on weekends. Without a return phone number, responses will be delayed until the office is open on the next regular business day.

Asbestos Testing?

JM

Attendance at the November 11 Homeowners' Forum was very sparse, likely due to the very chilly weather. At 7:00 PM, when the meeting began, the temperature reading was 34F with a 10 mph wind chill factor bringing it down to feel like only 27F! Nevertheless, Rory Scott and Bill Magno gave their regular maintenance update, concentrating on the snow removal work done following the prior weekend's snow storm. They also reported on a couple of other items such as continuation of the monthly-phased tile replacements in the laundry/storage rooms and the apparent deterioration of Broadway Ramparts' rear garage walls adjacent to our Lower Pond. Most of the remainder of the Forum meeting was devoted to planning for the Holiday Open House which is scheduled for 6:30 to 8:30 PM on Tuesday, December 8, in the Clubhouse. Due to the small attendance, Denise Haas of TMMC postponed her presentation of "HOA 101" (a report on the 2010 HMCA Budget) to the January Forum. The winner of the $25 grocery gift card was – again?! – Lisa Smith. Congratulations, Lisa. Bon appétit!

NEED A PLACE FOR A MEETING OR A PARTY?

Not enough space in your apartment or townhome? Are you looking for a place to hold a holiday gathering or host a birthday, anniversary or graduation party? A social or fraternal group meeting? How about some similar life-cycle or just-for-the-heck-of-it event? Your Highline Meadows Clubhouse is available for short-term rentals at an extremely reasonable rate – by the hour or for the day or the evening. If you are interested in renting the Clubhouse, contact TMMC Property Management at any of the contact points shown at the bottom of page 4. Tell your friends. Clubhouse rental is available to non-owners and non-residents also. A small damage deposit is required.

PUNS FOR THE EDUCATED MIND

The roundest knight at King Arthur's round table was Sir Cumference.
