Who Teaches Our Courses?

Instructors for the Leadership Training Institute are contracted and targeted for their experience and expertise in the four areas of instruction including:

- Community Skills
- Leadership Skills
- Technical Skills
- Community Engagement

Instructors are from other nonprofit agencies in Tucson, higher education establishments, and the community. Their years of experience make them qualified to teach these fundamental areas involved empowering neighborhoods.

Youth Empowerment Services Network

633 N. 2nd Avenue
Tucson, Arizona 85705
(520) 297-0702
www.yes-network.org

Youth Empowerment Services Network

Leadership Training Institute

Empowering our Neighborhoods with Information and Skills to Build a Community

www.yes-network.org

LEADERSHIP TRAINING INSTITUTE

YES Networks mission is to train, place, support and collaborate with non profits to empower youth, families ,and neighborhoods. One way YES Network supports nonprofits and neighborhoods is through the Leadership Training Institute. The Leadership Training Institute aims to provide nonprofits and neighborhood residents with the skills needed to address issues in the community and empower residents.

THE LEADERSHIP TRAINING INSTITUTE PROVIDES NEIGHBORHOODS AND NONPROFITS WITH SKILLS TO BECOME EMPOWERED

Empowerment of youth, families and neighborhoods means to equip or supply someone with the ability and resources to accomplish something. People will have access to the necessary resources to become equipped to reduce and prevent crime, increase healthy lifestyles, improve educational success, and/or increase job skills and employment.

LEADERSHIP SKILLS

- Grass roots Leadership: Skills for Community Volunteer Leaders

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Grant Writing
- Recruitment
- Networking
- Marketing
- Program Evaluation

COMMUNITY SKILLS

- Discovering What Your Community Cares Enough to Act Upon
- Asset Mapping for Your Neighborhood

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

The Community Engagement section offers courses such as:

- Neighboring: Engaging Under –Resources Communities in Service
- Community Engagement
- Partnering with your Community

WHO MAY ATTEND THE LEADERSHIP TRAINING INSTITUTE?

We encourage neighborhood residents and nonprofit organizations to attend the Leadership Training Institute.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN TEACHING OR ATTENDING A CLASS CONTACT:

LTI Administrator Milini Simms at Milini@yes-network.org or call 520-297-0702

Also visit our webpage at www.yes-network.org for more information on the LTI schedule