

SENIORS!!!!

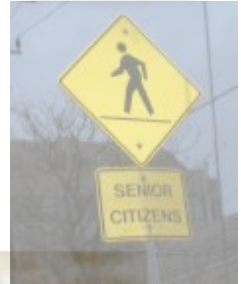

LEARN HOW TO BE THE B.O.S.S.

(Be Observant, Smart, and Safe)

Detroit Police Department Senior Citizens Safety Workshop

Senior citizens are increasingly becoming victims of crime in our city and around the country. To address this major concern, the Detroit Police Department is hosting a safety workshop for senior citizens. Certified instructors will provide valuable information on personal safety, how to handle suspicious behavior, and not becoming a victim of scams or con games.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2009
Focus Hope Center For Advanced Technology
1400 Oakman Blvd.
10:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M.

For additional information and to register, please contact the Detroit Police Department's Police Community Services at (313)596-2520.

Chief of Police James R. Barren, Ph.D.