

Sponsored by: Project Prosperity and Faith, Inc (PPF, Inc)
And
Community Housing Development, Inc (CHD)

Community
Housing
Development

FREE 20 HOUR FINANCIAL COURSE FOR MANAGING YOUR MONEY AND FINANCES:

Credit When Credit is Due (CWCID) and Make Your Move (MYM) are Financial Literacy Education and Home Buyers Education that are now available in your community. These education programs look at a wide range of personal financial management topics.

Next Class:

Monday July 9
Monday July 16
Monday, July 23
Monday, July 30
Monday, August 6

This Free Program includes books, your name added to a national registry where creditors will confirm your achievement, three consumer cards that will be sent to the three credit reporting agencies to add a positive statement to your credit report. Graduates may qualify for special lender programs and may qualify for home buying assistance from the City of Columbus.

Monday, August 13
Monday, August 20
Monday, August 27

Class size is limited. Register by calling (614) 443-2633 or (614) 444-2925
or by email: gary@chdev.com or rodney.allen@projectprosperityfaith.com

Monday, September 10
Monday, September 17

Each class is from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Schiller Park Recreation Center,
1069 Jaeger Street, Columbus, Ohio 43206

You will learn:

- ✓ 24 positive steps you can take to improve your credit rating
- ✓ Precisely what is required of you by the lender when you borrow money
- ✓ How to evaluate good deals and bad
- ✓ Budgeting and saving, auto loans and leases, credit cards and other loans, bankruptcy, and rebuilding credit
- ✓ How to shop for a home
- ✓ How to evaluate a lender and mortgage loan
- ✓ How to understand the lender
- ✓ Your responsibilities as a home owner
- ✓ And much, much more!!!