

If you know a great neighbor or friend to our community, nominate this person for Schnitzelburg's #1 Citizen of the Year. Ideally the Schnitzelburg # 1 citizen is a person who had demonstrated one or more of the following attributes:

- ♦ has a history of volunteering in the community and works diligently to make our community a better place for its residents;
- ♦ promotes the neighborhood identity and/or Schnitzelburg's history;
- ♦ genuinely cares about the community, its residents and its environment;

Nominations are open and can be submitted to the SACC #1 citizen nomination committee anytime during the year. We kindly ask that nominations list the ways in which the individual nominee has contributed to the Schnitzelburg neighborhood.

Please complete the below information and place in the provided envelope and seal. Nominations can be placed in the "Push the Envelope" public slot at Hickory and Burnett street and/or dropped off at 1003 Milton Street.
