

Dear Castle Ridge Home Owners/Renters:

It's that time of year again! The Castle Ridge Neighborhood Garage Sale is just around the corner. Time to clean out the attic and closets and put a little coin in your pocket. The location of the sale is your very own garage or driveway. The sale will be advertised in the paper and in the past people have started driving through the neighborhood at the crack of dawn. The Castle Ridge Home Owners Association along with our neighbors in the Molsonwood Subdivision pay for the advertising of this event every year. Always remember that what you consider junk is another person's treasure!! It's a great way to spend the morning, meet your neighbors and get rid of that stuff just taking up space!!!!
