Fall Greetings,

As I observe the diligence and determined mindset of the squirrels that are grabbing acorns from the scrub oak tree in my front yard, scampering at top speed along the front deck or its railing and propelling their bodies into a giant pine to finally land on the fence and secret away their treasures in the neighbor's yard, I am reminded of this year's executive committee. In harmony, every member is working together to craft an outstanding year for you, the membership.

As examples, the executive committee ensured that at our first meeting in the pavilion at the Peace Gardens, we did not starve. The potluck was outstanding. The necessary business was accomplished that included a report from Irene Weisenberg on this year's Peace Garden Festival and we were privileged to enjoy a musical performance featuring a vocal, violin, guitar and cello. Also as the official yearbook committee, the executive committee worked together again today to update and ready it for the printer to be secreted away one day to live in the university archives. Just as squirrels on a mission to secure their destiny, these ladies give and care for each other and Salt Lake Council to ensure its success.

Dealing with the reality of declining involvement and the eminent financial predicament we may find our organization facing, the Executive Committee has made some administrative decisions. In an attempt to fund our basic needs, the scholarship program and the Hall of Fame this year, the executive committee decided to reduce the Hall of Fame honorees from seven to five. Letters will be going out next month to describe the program. Every club delegate and member should mull this over now and be ready to nominate an outstanding person when the letter and form arrive.

We are pleased to welcome Pioneer Theatre Guild back into our ranks. Pioneer Theatre has always been very generous with tickets for door prizes for our events every year and we thank the guild and the theatre for this charitable gesture. For your convenience, a complete list of upcoming plays and dates will be printed in the yearbook. Two of the guild luncheons, December and May, fall on the first Monday and because of contractual obligations, can't be changed. To accommodate both schedules, our meetings in December and May will be on the second Monday and will be noticed in the yearbook and the Courier.

The fundraising luncheon will be held Saturday, November 3, 2012. We are asking that door prizes and silent auction items be brought to the October General Meeting at the Columbus Center and all donations be new. Please help us out.

The general meetings will be held at the Columbus Center again this year. There is free parking in the front off of 5th East and in the back. The Columbus Center is handicapped accessible. Bring a friend. See you there October 1st.

Sincerely yours,
Janet Geyser,
President 2012-2013

SALT LAKE COUNCIL OF WOMEN
MEETING AND SOCIAL
SEPTEMBER 10, 2012

JORDAN PARK BOWERY
1060 SOUTH 900 WEST

A soft rain had just stopped as our President Janet Geysler called our meeting to order at 11:07 a.m. in our beautiful bowery. She graciously welcomed all those in attendance. She also spoke of the new committee sign-up lists and welcomed those lovely ladies that have already signed up to be leaders of special committees.

Mary Taylor gave our Inspirational Thought quoting Woodrow Wilson about service enriching the world.

Mary Vasilcopulos led all in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Janet Geysler introduced 11 Past Presidents and 4 Hall of Fame Recipients.

Tammy Dahn gave the Treasurers Report as follows: $525.00 Advertising Monies and $2874.59, which includes the matching, funds from an unnamed donor. These matching funds will be allocated to it's own fund.

Janet Geysler introduced and thanked the Executive Committee as follows:

Past President: Cathreen Stevens, President Elect: Pat Burkman, Vice President: Rosalie Mirabelli, Recording Secretary: Judi Allan, Corresponding Secretary: Peggy Stanley, Treasurer: Tammy Dahn, Historian: Madelene Lee, Auditor: Mary Gail Brassard, Parliamentarian: Kathy Boyer, Courier: Cynthia Bestvina, Chaplain: Mary Taylor, Flag Custodian: Mary Vasilacopulos, PR Director: Jackie Engel.

Cathreen Stevens welcomed new members and gave an overview of the wonderful things the past members have accomplished and of the future items we are working on.

Irene Weisenberg shared the workings of the Past Presidents work in the Peace Garden Festival and what a wonderful job Val Pope did working with our organization. She thanked the ladies that use their time from March until July sharing the beauty of the park with the guests that come to visit one of two parks in the U.S.

Janet Geysler honored Past President Cathreen Stevens for the 100 Year Gala Janet introduced this year's theme – Caring through Collaborative Service.

Pat Burkman announced our Roster, which will be given to the members in October. She also welcomed Pioneer Theatre back as an advertiser. This organization is a great asset to the SLCW.

Peggy Stanley invited two members of her family to entertain us. This mother and daughter musical duo is extremely talented. Melonie Scadden and Susan Miller can make beautiful music with a cello and a violin.

Janet Geysler adjourned the meeting for lunch and for what ladies do best – socialize.

Respectively submitted, Judi Allan
