

	Renraw Community TimeLine
Date	Event	Key
1780	Robert Cartwright grandfather of J.C. Warner lands at Big Salt Lick, now Nashville_April 1780.	JCW
1830	James Cartwright Warner born in Sumner County, TN_8/20/1830. Son of Jacon L. Warner and Elizabeth Cartwright Warner	JCW
1831	Mary "Money" Thomas Williams Warner born_8/11/1831	JCW
1847	J. C. Warner moves to Nashville	JCW
1852	J. C. Warner goes into Hardware business in Chattanooga	JCW
1852	J. C. Warner marries Mary Thomas Williams of Maplewood_November 3rd. They had 8 children of those who survived past infancy were: Leslie, who married Katherine Newell Burch; Harry; Percy who married Margaret Lindsley; Joseph W. who married Mary Frances Du	JCW
1855	Zachariah Stull builds log house off Gallatin Pike_ on original land grant of 640 acres	JCW
1861	James Octavius (J.O.) McClurkan born in Houston County, Tennessee	TNU
1861	J. C. Warner serves as Major of Chattanooga and in the state legislature	JCW
1861	Percy Warner born in Chattanooga_Death in 1927	JCW
1863	Losses in the Battle of Chickamauga (September 19-20, 1863) force J. C. Warner return to Nashville_Main resident on North Spruce Street (Eighth Avenue North)	JCW
1868	JCW Secretary of Tennesse Coal and Railroad Company	JCW
1870	Edwin Warner Born in Nashville_Death in 1945	JCW
1874	JCW Retires from TCR due to ill health	JCW
1875	JCW comes out of retirement and named President of Tennessee Manufacturing Company	JCW
1879	JCW Becomes Principal Owner of Chattanooga Iron Company_Percy Warner is also owner.	JCW
1880	Goes back into the Coal Furnace business_Warner Iron Company_purchases property of 60 acres on Galltain Pike "Renraw"	JCW
1882	Named president of a reorgniazed Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company	JCW
1885	Retires from TCI due to ill health	JCW
1890	Warner makes extensive repairs and additions to Renraw	JCW
1895	J. C. Warner DOD_ 7/21/1895. Percy Warner inherits Renraw	JCW
1896	Charles Dow starts the first Dow Industrial Average in May. Included in the original 12 companies is Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company, TCI	JCW
1901	J.O. McClurkan founds school in Nashville as the "Pentecostal Literary and Bible Training School".	TNU
1903	Richard M. "Pek" Gunn born Hickman County, Tennessee	RPG
1907	"Panic of 1907" one of the worst economic events in US history_ TCI merges with US Steel (Andrew Carnegie and J.P. Morgan) with personal approval from President Theodore Roosevelt to prevent further economic collapse.	JCW
1910	Mary "Money" Thomas Williams Warner death 7/28/1910	JCW
1911	J.O. McClurkan changes Name of college to Trevecca College for Christian Workers.	TNU
1912	Percy Warner moves to Royal Oaks in Bellemeade.	JCW
1914	Trevecca College for Christian Workers moves to Gallatin Pike in East Nashville.	TNU
1914	J. O. McClurkan dies ay age 53 on the day the Trevecca College opens on Gallatin Road.	TNU
1914	Neighborhood surrounding Trevecca College is developed with the streets named after holiness preachers and evangelists including Clarence B. Strouse; John Lakin Brasher; J.O.McClurkan. Main street into the college is named Trevecca. Side streets Martha an	TNU
1919	H. O. Balls founds Nashville Auto College	NADC
1927	Parks donated by Mrs. Percie Warner Lea to the City of Nashville. Land for the two park locations was an original land grant to the Lea family. The parks are named after Luke Lea's father in law (Percy Warner) and (Edwin Warner)_2,664 acres of land were d	JCW
1927	Percy Warner Death_Donated parks named after Percy and Edwin Warner	JCW
1932	Bankruptcy forces Trevecca College to sell its property_bought by W.O. Balls	TNU
1935	In 1935, the college moved back to its present location on Murfreesboro Pike in southeast Nashville, where it once again leased and then took over the 7-acre campus of Walden University in 1937	TNU
1940	Warners Live at Royal Oaks until 1940_Royal Oaks razed in 1960	JCW
1945	Edwin Warner Death	JCW
1957	Hattie Cotton School bombing 9/9/1957	RCA
1963	Pek Gunn publishes "Keep on Laughin" and "Tumblin Creek" books of poems	RPG
1971	Pek Gunn named Tennessee Poet Laureate and holds that title until 1994	RPG
1995	Pek Gunn death at age 91 Residence still standing in Renraw Community	RPG
2003	Lincoln School of Technology purchases NADC	NADC
2003	Renraw Community Association founded	RCA