

LA County's Measure H on the Ballot!
- Tuesday, March 7th

Don't forget to vote! Tomorrow, Tuesday, March 7th is the Los Angeles County Elections. The only item for Long Beach voters the ballot is Measure H. Approval of Measure H would authorize LA County to impose a one quarter percent (0.25%) special sales tax on the gross receipts of any retailer.

Proceeds from Measure H will be used to generate ongoing funding to prevent and combat homelessness within Los Angeles County. Long Beach will be exempt from paying the new tax until the current, Measure A, sales tax expires in six years.
