

Baltimore City Department of Public Works

Small Hauler Program

DPW has taken steps to make it easier for small commercial haulers to properly dispose of trash to improve their efficiency, reduce instances of illegal dumping, and help keep our City clean. Small haulers are able to dispose of their loads at the Northwest Transfer Station, which is located at 5030 Reisterstown Road. Small haulers visiting the Northwest Transfer Station are encouraged to apply for a permit for handling small loads of trash. The facility is free for residents, and $20 per load for small haulers with a valid permit.

SMALL HAULERS PROGRAM F.A.Q.

The Small Hauler Program is an initiative of the Department of Public Works to provide unpermitted small haulers an opportunity to dispose of their waste and apply for a City permit.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Bring the registration form for each truck to Environmental Inspection Services at 1001 East Fayette Street, Baltimore MD 21202. Registration must include the weight of the vehicle.

Pay the required fee at our customer service counter: $100 for each truck over 7000 lbs., $35 for each truck 7000 lbs. and under. Office hours are Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Ninety-day permits are also available for a pro-rated fee.

Haulers can learn more about permits at health.baltimorecity.gov/waste-hauler-license.

WHY DO I NEED A PERMIT?

You need a waste hauler license if you contract with others for the collection, transportation, or disposal of solid waste; or engage in the collection, transportation, or disposal of solid waste. If someone pays you to collect, transport and dump their trash, you need a permit.

WHY SHOULD I GET A PERMIT?

By having a small hauler's permit, you will be allowed to use our locations at the Northwest Transfer Station and the Quarantine Road Landfill. The disposal fee is $20 per load up to 7,000 lbs. For loads over 7,000 lbs., it is then $3.38 per 100 lbs. over 7,000 lbs.
