LEXINGTON MARKET PUBLIC HISTORY INITIATIVE

NOW LISTENING!

WANT TO BE A PART OF HISTORY?

TELL THE PEALE ABOUT YOUR EXPERIENCES AT THE WORLD-FAMOUS LEXINGTON MARKET.

The Lexington Market Public History Initiative seeks to collect, archive, and tell the stories of Lexington Market, Baltimore's largest public market and an icon of culinary and cultural heritage. Construction on a new Market building is under way with expected completion in early 2022, and at this critical inflection point for the Market, key partners have come together to launch this initiative in the hopes of both paying homage to the Market's long history.
