Neighborhood Announcements

- Our condolences go out to the family of Josie Ramos of 428 W. Helen St., Tucson, AZ 85705 who passed away on November 18, 2005. Josie was born on March 19, 1932 and was the Head Cook for St Mary's Hospital for 49 years. Josie had lived in the Barrio Blue Moon Neighborhood since 1961, and will be truly missed.
- We have scheduled a neighborhood cleanup day for Saturday, January 21, 2006 (please see the "take it to the curb" announcement in the newsletter.
- Brush & Bulky is provided by the City of Tucson and is scheduled to be in our neighborhood on Monday, January 23, 2006. Please refer to the list of acceptable/not acceptable items listed in the newsletter.
- We encourage everyone to please report any suspicious activity, graffiti, or crimes in the neighborhood to the Tucson Police Department. It takes everyone working together to protect our neighborhood.
- We have just received news from Steve Leal; Vice Mayor that effective December 13, 2005 the policy that was being used to control neighborhood communications has changed. Now neighborhood associations can have forums on propositions, or candidate forums to educate the community. If you have any questions please call the Southside Council Office at 791-4231.
