

CAMP
ZACHARY TAYLOR
NEIGHBORHOOD
ASSOCIATION

Yours to enjoy. From our parks to the Louisville Zoo and from our homegrown businesses to just sitting on the front-porch with friends, you continue to make Camp Zachary Taylor enjoyable.

Yours to protect. Crime and pollution don't stop at your front door. By bringing a unified voice to Metro Louisville Government, we can better protect our homes, our families and our community.

Yours to improve. Home improvement isn't limited to just your house. Join your neighbors to make Camp Zachary Taylor the best neighborhood in Louisville.

From our Previous Meeting

We started off our April meeting with a spark by welcoming Louisville Fire Chief, Gregory Frederick, to speak about how the recent Fire Department study would affect our neighborhood. Neighbors in attendance voiced their concerns about the proposed closure of the Fincastle station, EMS run times and more. Was your question asked? Only if you were there!

We also welcomed Camp Taylor Fire Chief Harold E. Adkins and Deputy Chief Steve E. Adkins to speak about their brand-new fire station, currently under construction on Durrett Lane.

Metro Police Sixth Division Sergeant J. T. Duncan also came by to give us an update on crime in the neighborhood and answer questions. Did you know our neighborhood has one of lowest crime rates in Metro Louisville?

Next Meeting:
Thursday, May 4th, 7PM

Don't miss the next meeting this Thursday, May 4th at Camp Taylor Elementary (1446 Belmar Drive), where we'll welcome executives from Metro Parks to discuss the conditions and needs of Camp Taylor Memorial Park. All are welcomed. See you there!
