

Lake Colony Newsletter

Fall 2008

Lake Colony Halloween Party
Friday, October 31 at 6:00 pm
Colony Place cul-de-sac Pizza, goodie bags, games and prizes. Wear your costume and celebrate Halloween with your neighbors. Come join the fun!

Babysitter Wanted

Do you have a few Hours
Saturday or Sunday afternoon or evening? If you are interested in babysitting contact Karen at sragraf22@vahoo.com

The LCCI Annual Meeting will be November 13, at 7:00 p.m. at Johnson Ferry Baptist Church. The meeting will be in the room called the "Net" located directly across from the room where election voting takes place. Nominations for the 2009 LCCI Board of Directors will be taken at the Annual Meeting. Please come to the meeting and nominate yourself!

Did you know that Lake Colony has a website?
Can you help to make this website great? Go to www.neighborhoodlink.com/cobbco/lcci/main.html

Do you have something for the newsletter? Email hollieschaefer@comcast.net or sagafonov@yahoo.com

In Memory of Founding LCCI member, Jack Sweitzer

Jack Sweitzer, 70, of 1279 Colony Place passed away suddenly on August 2, while working on the Chattahoochee River National Recreation Area, one of his favorite passions and interests. Jack had an uncanny enthusiasm for life and lived life to the fullest, bringing joy and excitement to all those around him. Jack was employed by Kimberly-Clark for over 30 years, where he a marketing research executive. Through the years, his career at KC landed him in MA, WI, NJ, and ultimately to Marietta in 1982. His biggest passion was music and singing. He was an active member of the Big Chicken Chorus, a barbershop outfit based in Marietta, for over 20 years, where his excitement for singing and performing was exhibited in the various barbershop shows and other events, as well as the international competitions. He was also a member of the barbershop quartet "Chicken Chips", which occasionally had the honor of singing the national anthem before professional sporting events including Braves, Falcons, and Hawks games.