S.A.C.C. Newsletter

From the President

First off this month, I am so relieved that our neighborhood has made it through another natural disaster! First the "hurricane", then the ice storm - two wallops in six months is a bit much if you ask me! I think this is a great opportunity to remember the importance of community and to try to get to know your neighbors a little better so that the next time nature throws something like this at us, we will be prepared to check on each other and make sure everyone in Schnitzelburg is taken care of.

I am reaching out to our 2,500 households in the neighborhood to encourage you to join the Schnitzelburg Area Community Council. Also, if you are a business and you haven't joined yet, we encourage you to do so! Your dues help pay for the printing of our newsletter that keeps you abreast of community events. Dues are due in January and expire in December, so the sooner you join, the longer your business listing appears in the newsletter and the more advertising you get! The application is right on the back of the newsletter, so fill yours out today!

Finally, now that the snow is melting, it is time to spruce up our neighborhood! Mark your calendars because Operation Brightside will be joining me to clean up an area in Schnitzelburg-and you can help decide where we will work! Simply call the Schnitzelburg Wellness Center by March 10 and let us know what block or alley needs some TLC. The phones are manned on Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., just call 634-3221. We will let you know where we plan to clean in the March newsletter. Brightside will provide gloves and bags and we have plenty of rakes for volunteers. We hope you will come out and help us make Schnitzelburg a beautiful place to live, but if you are unable, perhaps consider making March 29 a "spring cleaning day" for your own home-imagine the difference we could make if we all stepped outside our doors to tidy up a bit!

The Volunteers of America of Kentucky

In the midst of the current economic downturn, concerns abound, whether it is for yourself and your own financial situation, for the comfort of your family or for the well being of your neighbor. Fortunately for our community, there is an organization that can address all these worries-the Volunteers of America of Kentucky, Inc (VOA).

The VOA was founded in 1896 and is one of the largest and most diversified nonprofit human service agencies in Kentucky. The Kentucky headquarters...

is located right in our neighborhood at 933 Goss Avenue. The organization focuses on helping people overcome their challenges to become self-sustaining members of the community. Some of the issues that the VOA addresses are homelessness, addiction and developmental disabilities. Many programs are available on a sliding scale to increase accessibility for those in need.

The VOA's major projects include the Family Emergency Shelter, the Grace House and the Maud Booth House. Each establishment has a distinctive purpose, and all provide shelter for those in need. The Family Emergency Shelter addresses the immediate needs of homeless families while helping them build a plan to transition to their own home. The Grace House provides a safe haven for pregnant or postpartum women who are suffering from addiction. The Maud Booth House is a home for women who are at least six months into recovery from substance abuse who have young children. Each shelter focuses on keeping families together during such difficult transitions, a distinction that is important for parents who would hesitate to seek help if it meant separation from their children.

Follow up is provided in all cases to make sure that individuals and families stay on the road to recovery, and the VOA also operates various programs to support veterans and adults with limited independence due to developmental disabilities. For those interested in learning more about the VOA, the organization offers the Real3 Journey, a tour of the Family Emergency Shelter that includes information on the solutions that VOA offers to people in need. The VOA has a variety of volunteer opportunities as well, including Study Buddies and Food Service Assistants. Visit www.voaky.org or call 636-4639 to learn more!

From the Vice President

Spring is coming, and flowers will soon be blooming and what are left of our trees will spring leaves again. We hope to get more done on Emerson Park if we can get the idiots with the four wheel drive to keep from riding over it.

It won't be long before the Center starts having day trips again. Check the President's letter about our neighborhood cleanup sponsored by Brightside. We can use all the help we can get. The Scouts have been asked to form a group to help pickup and any other group who wishes to join in more then welcome. We would like to see all the businesses to also clean up around their establishments.

We are collecting canned goods for the St Vincent DePaul society at our next meeting and all other meetings. We also accept canned goods at the MUSCL Senior Wellness Center.

Last month we featured a recipe from Zeppelin Café' and this month we are pleased to share a recipe from Flabby's that was featured in Saveur magazine's January/February issue. I would like get a recipe from each establishment that serves food in Schnitzelburg to showcase in our newsletter. We are very fortunate to have great food right here in our neighborhood, so remember to get out and support our local restaurants!

Finally, I think a big thank you is due to all the neighbors of Schnitzelburg. Seems like we were among the last people in the city to get our lights back on and everybody pitched in to help their neighbors get along during the outage. Also, help each other with the clean up of all the tree limbs. When the city does its part and picks up the piles of branches on the curb, our neighborhood will shine again. Don't forget junk pick starting March 2nd.

Check www.neighborhoodlink.com/louisville/saclinc for further pick-up dates.

Recipe of the Month

From the chef at Flabby's

Fried Chicken Livers

As seen in Saveur Magazine

Ingredients:

Canola oil, for frying
1 lb chicken livers, trimmed
1 cup buttermilk
2 cups self-rising flour
1 tbsp. kosher salt
2 tsp. freshly ground black pepper
1 tsp. poultry seasoning
Hot sauce for dipping

Directions:

1. Pour oil into a 4-qt saucepan to reach a depth of 2"; heat over medium-high heat until a deep-fry thermometer registers 340 degrees. Soak livers in buttermilk for 5 minutes. Combine flour, salt, pepper and poultry seasoning in a small baking dish. Drain livers; dredge each liver in flour mixture, shaking excess flour, and transfer to a plate.
2. Fry livers in batches until golden brown, 3-4 minutes. (Cover pan with a splatter screen to keep oil from splattering.) Transfer livers to a paper towel-lined plate. Serve with hot suase.
