March Meeting Tidbits

Last March's meeting was another success for the WWNW. A good crowd showed up and three new faces were noticed as well. Signs, word-of-mouth and our website seem to be working to strengthen our numbers.

Our annual calendar was presented at the meeting, as well as copies being provided for members. A copy is on page two of this newsletter as well.

President Tom Lauria announced the new committees and their members:

- Beautification & Renovation – Jordan Fogal and Emily Law
- City Services – Marion Sanford and Mary Turner
- Communications – Mary Moore and Tom Lauria

Events – Ruth Thomas, Dale Heath and Jen Lauria

Financial – Barbara Birdnow

Membership – Jen and Tom Lauria

Lastly, Superintendent of Elmore County Schools, Dr. Jeff Langham, spoke. He discussed the new Redland School and future uses of the old

Wetumpka Junior High School building. He mentioned that it would be used for the Change Program for troubled youths and also for adult education programs.

His goal is to hopefully utilize the building as a magnet school for the arts as well as a community center.

The West Wetumpka Neighborhood Watch (WWNW) was formed in September 2006. The purposes of this volunteer organization are to enhance community value through assisting the neighborhood in achieving the following objectives:

- Reduce burglaries and other crimes through such programs such as a neighborhood watch, community policing or other initiatives.
- Foster a neighborhood identity and sense of community.
- Promote an understanding among property owners, residents, government and business interests.
- Preserve and enhance the historic and residential quality of the neighborhood, as well as pursue neighborhood improvement and beautification projects.
