p resident's Notes

By Rich Taylor

Happy New Year to each El Dorado resident. I hope your holidays were enjoyable and wish you all the best for 2010.

Congratulations to the winners of the Christmas Lighting Contest listed elsewhere in this issue.

Welcome to any new residents to El Dorado. Several of you have indicated your pleasure to be here. I appreciate your positive comments about the community and look forward to your involvement in activities for the good of the area.

I ask each resident family to resolve to do more for your community in 2010. Decide now to be a full supporter by planning to pay your association dues.

Attend the Homes Association Board meetings on the second Monday of each month and make your interests and concerns known to the Board. Without your input the board can't respond. It does no good to complain to your neighbor if you don't come forward and make your concerns known to the Board. And be ready to volunteer wherever necessary.

Take pride in the appearance of your home and yard and resolve to make your home a good example for your neighbors and the community. Store your trash cans out of site.

Do your part for the safety of the area by volunteering for Cellular On Patrol (COP). Attend the COP meeting on the third Monday of each month.

Let's work together to make 2010 the best year ever for El Dorado.

Welcome Wagon

If you have a new neighbor, or if you ARE a new neighbor, please contact your Area Representative or our Welcome Wagon Chairperson. If you are unsure of your area, you can find it on the neighborhood map on the back cover of this newsletter. You can also contact the Welcome Wagon Chairperson or any board member listed on Page 2 of this publication. We would like to personally welcome all new neighbors and provide information about the community and the El Dorado Homes Association, but we can't do that if we aren't alerted as families move into the neighborhood.

El Dorado
Helping Hands

We have a core group of volunteers available to assist El Dorado residents with small tasks. Because we have had very little response to this program, and because of the difficult economic climate, we would like to open this program to people other than just senior citizens and people with disabilities. If you are an El Dorado resident and you could use a "helping hand," or if you are interested in volunteering, please contact Jamie Gifford at 655-9594 or EDHASunburst@satx.rr.com.

We Want To Hear From You

The subject of beautifying the Nacogdoches entrance and Island area has been raised again. We are interested in hearing from residents about what you would like to see done with this common area. We are also looking for volunteers (with or without expertise) to help make it happen. If you are interested in helping or if you have a great idea, please contact Renee Richno, or any other member of the EDHA Board. Telephone numbers can be found on Page 2 of this publication.

Section 1725 of Title 18 of the US Code prohibits placing mailable materials like circulars and sales bills with unpaid postage in mailboxes with intent to avoid payment of postage. Recently, the El Dorado Homes Association received a friendly warning from the US Postal Service. It seems that some of our wonderful distribution volunteers have been placing the Sunburst inside of our residents' mailboxes. So, if you are a distribution volunteer, please don't place the Sunburst inside of any mailboxes, and if you find your Sunburst inside your mailbox, please notify Shirley Stephens immediately. Thank you for your cooperation, and thank you to the USPS for not imposing EDHA with the applicable fine.

About New Years

New Year's Day is the first day of the calendar year. It is celebrated as a holiday in almost every country in the world. It is a time of gaiety, sharing with friends, remembering the past, and hoping for good things in the future. In the United States, thousands of people jam Times Square in New York City to welcome the New Year at midnight. The transition between New Year's Eve and New Year's Day is an exciting one. In Times Square, people count down the seconds to welcome the new day as the New Year ball slowly descends and lights up the area.

Not all countries or cultures celebrate New Year on January 1st. The Chinese, Egyptian, Jewish, Roman, and Mohammedan years all have different start dates. Chinese New Year starts on a different day each year. Thousands of years ago, the Egyptians celebrated their New Year about the middle of June. That was the time when the Nile River usually overflowed. January 1 was recognized as New Year's Day in the 1500's with the introduction of the Gregorian Calendar. The Julian Calendar places the New Year on January 14. The Jewish New Year, a feast day, is celebrated about the time of the fall equinox, in late September.

In ancient Rome, the first day of the New Year honored Janus, the god of gates, doors, beginnings and endings - the month of January, named after Janus, was originally called 'Januarius.' Janus had two faces - one which looked ahead to see what the new year would bring, and the other looked backward to see what happened during the past year. Ancient Romans celebrated New Years by giving gifts to friends and family members - some even gave gifts to Senators in exchange for favors!

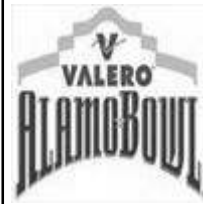

In England, Druid priests celebrated their New Year on March 10. They gave branches of mistletoe to people for charms. Later, English people followed the custom of cleaning their chimneys on New Year's Day. The English believed this brought good luck to the household for the coming year. The expression "cleaning the slate" came from this custom. It means making resolutions to correct faults and bad habits. People resolve to make themselves better in the New Year. It is still customary even today to make a list of New Years resolutions for the coming year.

At the discretion of the editorial staff, anonymous "Dear Neighbor" letters are being accepted for publication. All submissions should be civilized and generally relevant to all of the residents of El Dorado.

Dear Neighbor,

I would like to ask El Dorado residents to have some common courtesy when walking their pets and pick up after them. Recently, a lady walking 2 dogs allowed them to use my yard to relive themselves. She left the mess on my yard leaving me with no choice but to clean up the mess myself. Just this last week while mowing my lawn I went over some mess with my mower. You can only imagine my disgust when the nasty odors went airborne. Again, we enjoy seeing our neighbors out and about but would like to see some common courtesy while walking their pets.

Thank You,

Your Neighbor

- ◆ Reheating Pizza—Heat up leftover pizza in a non-stick skillet on top of the stove. Set heat to medium low and heat until warm. This keeps the crust crispy. No soggy microwave pizza.
- ◆ Broken Glass—Use a cotton ball to pick up little broken pieces of glass. The fibers catch the ones you can't see.
- ◆ To keep squirrels away from eating your plants sprinkle cayenne pepper on them. The cayenne pepper doesn't hurt plants and the squirrels won't come near it.
- ◆ When you get a splinter, reach for the duct tape before using a needle or tweezers. Put the duct tape over the affected area. Works great with those small cactus stickers that won't come out. You can reapply as needed. If really deep I wear the tape at least 24 hours.

Maintenance fees are the lifeblood of the El Dorado Homes Association. They are the main source of the revenue required to keep our neighborhood safe, attractive and vibrant. These fees pay for the many expenses that we have as a community, including, but not limited to the following:

- ◆ Keeping the lake mowed and trash-free
- ◆ Paying for insurance, utilities and taxes on the clubhouse, pool and common areas
- ◆ Sponsoring social events and gatherings where neighbors can build relationships
- ◆ Providing for upkeep of the common areas
- ◆ Creating a unique atmosphere that shows a sense of pride in our community!

We are fortunate to live in a neighborhood where the homes association is still active. Because of our residents and the work of the EDHA, we have a beautiful community, a unique paseo and a fantastic pool. We have an assortment of informational signage, which is kept current and relevant. The Social Committee plans events all year for residents' enjoyment, and the Cellular On Patrol program keeps plugging along in attempt to keep the neighborhood safe and crime-free.
