Tags let keg sellers track buyers, fight minors' beer consumption

June 11, 2010

A new program will allow store owners who sell beer kegs to keep track of buyers in a new effort to stop people who give alcohol to minors.

Two organizations - the Pima County Community Prevention Coalition and the Pima County-Tucson Commission on Addiction Prevention & Treatment Task Force - joined with Tucson police to announce the Voluntary Merchant Keg Tagging Program.

The program allows merchants to place a tag - with information about the buyer, his or her address and the sale date - on kegs of beer when they are purchased.

Merchants began participating in the program more than a month ago.

It was enacted to help law enforcement track down adults who give beer to minors, said Amy Bass, program director for the Pima County Community Coalition.

There are currently eight store owners taking part in the program, Bass said.

Program officials hope the initiative and the support it has received from the community will drive the Legislature to create a law, she said.

"Even though times are tough, you still have business owners wanting to do the right thing," she said.

Boundary streets for the Elvira Neighborhood Association are: Valencia to the North, Los Reales to the South, I-19 to the West, Nogales Hwy to the East.

To report graffiti: Putting graffiti on public or private property is against the law. If you see someone in the act of "tagging," call 911. If the graffiti is already in place, call 792-CITY (792-2489) to report it. Graffiti left in place tends to attract more graffiti.

DANGER! CO² Cartridges

Our children have been piercing these CO² cartridges in order to inhale the gas inside. These are legal and can be purchased for air guns, but are being used to produce a drug- like high. This behavior can result in damage to the lungs, or the brain!

¡PELIGRO! Botes de CO²

Nuestros hijos estan picando estos botes de CO²: Para aspirar el gas adentro. Cualquier persona se puede comprar estos botes legalmente para usar en pistolas de aire, pero jovenes los estan usando como una droga y pueden encontrar problemas de salud muy graves con los pulmones y con el cerebro!
