OLD FASHION BLOCK PARTY

Greetings, My name is Kimberly McMahon, and I am the promotions coordinator at the Love Baptist Church, located at the NE corner of 31st Ave. & Glendale Ave.

On June 11th, from 6-9pm, we are having a block party for the North Glen Square neighborhood.

We are part of this neighborhood, we wish to reach out and serve this neighborhood.

We want this chance to meet the people around us and let them meet each other.

We are planning a chicken dinner, games, take away crafts, live music, door prizes and much more!

We are asking the businesses in our neighborhood to come out as well.

All of this will be free!

The block party will be held at Mariposa Park. (31st Ave. N. of Orangewood)

(Southeast quadrant of the park)

NOTE: NEWSLETTER READERS, from this newsletter forward, your newsletter will become bi-monthly, due to cost and time constraints. So, the next newsletter will come out in July, so watch your mailboxes for it!! And remember, keep those cards and letters coming in...it gets lonely down here in the basement of NGS headquarters!!

GOING GREEN

If you wear your shoes in the house, you are introducing chemicals into the environment.

FOOT FIRST

Leave your yard outside. Before you step into your home, remove the dirt and germ magnets from your feet-lose your shoes. When you wear your shoes in the house, you are introducing all kinds of chemicals into the environment. There is no point in making big changes if you don't start small and take your shoes off.

If you fill up your car on the way home, you just trekked gasoline into your kitchen, where you prepare food.

Or, if you entered a public restroom, the industrial cleaners used to disinfect the floors are now on your carpet. (courtesy of D. Kay)

From Annalee Madorski

I was burglarized on August 13th;
We need to let others know when burglaries occur without putting out specifics, but times and ways of said break in would be helpful. We also need to be diligent about reporting people in the alleys to Crime Stop! They don't seem to do much when you don't give your name, there were 3 others break ins since mine in a short time frame, and nothing was said in our newsletter. Two were on Belmont, and one was next door to me, in the daytime, to the north side of my alley.
If I had the money, I would move elsewhere. In the meantime, we need to do something! There is an abandoned house on Lane and 33rd Ave., one house west of the corner of Lane and 33rd Ave.
Next door to that house on 33rd Drive is a woman living there that has really let her house do. I've heard she may be having financial difficulties. Maybe we could take up a collection to help her out, or get a crew together and one day spend some time tidying up her place? Any volunteers out there?? Thanks!!

IRRIGATION COURTESY

There has been an increasing problem with irrigation flooding or shortages in the area.

Irrigation is basically just good common sense, but recent conversations with neighbors reveals not all understand the regimen necessary to operate our system.

A few simple rules will assure you and your neighbors will get their water as scheduled.

- When you sign up on the board, take only the amount you can use.
- Be sure you or someone will be responsible to take run-regardless of the time of day.
- If you fail to take all or part of your water, it builds up down the line, and eventually will flood somewhere. This will cause complaints to SRP who will shut it off temporarily. This causes others to miss their run as they don't know it's shut off until it's too late to call SRP and restart.

For some reason, I get lots of complaints and questions on irrigation-perhaps because I am first on the run, and have been around since it was all ditches! I have yet to see a complaint that the "golden rule" would not have avoided. PLEASE think of your friends and neighbors as you plan to take your irrigation allotment-we will all benefit!!

Thank you, Tom Woods

NorthGlen KitchenDOUBLE CHOCOLATE BROWNIES*INGREDIENTS

6 tablespoons unsalted butter, plus more for pan
 6 ounces coarsely chopped good-quality semisweet chocolate
 1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa powder (not Dutch-process)
 3/4 cup all-purpose flour
 1/4 teaspoon baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 cup sugar
 2 large eggs
 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line a buttered 8-in square baking pan with foil or parchment paper, allowing 2 inches to hang over sides. Butter lining(excluding overhang); set pan aside.
2. Put butter, chocolate and cocoa in a heatproof medium bowl set over a pan of simmering water; stir until butter and chocolate are melted. Let cool slightly.
3. Whisk together flour, baking powder and salt in a separate bowl; set aside.
4. Put sugar, eggs, and vanilla in the bowl of an electric mixer fitted with the whisk attachment, and beat on medium speed until pale, about 4 minutes. Add chocolate mixture; beat until combined. Add flour mixture; beat, scraping down the sides of bowl, until well incorporated.
5. Pour batter into prepared pan; smooth top with a rubber spatula. Bake until a cake tester inserted into brownies (avoid center and edges) comes out with a few crumbs but is not well, about 35 minutes. Let cool slightly in pan, about 15 minutes. Lift out brownies; let cool completely on a wire rack before cutting into squares.

YIELD: makes 9 large, or 16 small squares
