TNR: KNOWN AS TRAP, NEUTER, RETURN

My name is Sonya Jarrett, and I live in the El Dorado Neighborhood. I have lived on and off for several years and noticed the “stray and feral” cat population explode, due to, the unfixed cats that can and will reproduce. I have been working with clinics out of town on trapping, neutering, and returning the cats back to their known environments. This program works to reduce the population and overgrowth of stray and feral cats, also, known as Community Cats. I have now committed to helping our neighborhood with this dilemma and teamed up with city and nationwide resources to accomplish this feat; both San Antonio Feral Cat Coalition and Alley Cat Allies are working together to bring peace to our furry friends and their human counters. San Antonio Cat Coalition is a non-profit organization that has proven this method time and time again of TNR; and they are willing to help other volunteers organize and humanely trap strays and feral cats to get the neutering and vaccination done. I am hoping to round up volunteers to help with obtaining traps, trapping, shuttling, post-surgery care, and then the release of these Community Cats. There will be training on trapping and post-surgery for those interested. My phone number is 210-723-3059 and email is sonyaljarrett@gmail.com. Once, I have enough interest, I will schedule a meeting to discuss more in depth of what needs to take place and when.

“STOP ILLEGAL DUMPING”

This new center is located at 1800 E. Bitters Road and will provide residents with a location to dispose of bulky items. The materials will be recycled by the Solid Waste management Department or disposed of properly in the landfill. When visiting the center, residents need to bring a Picture ID and a recent CPS Energy utility bill showing the Solid Waste environmental fee.

Business hours: Tuesday-Friday 8a.m to 5 p.m

INFORMATION

The Citizen on Patrol class is fascinating! Did you know you don't have to patrol in a car, or on a schedule, or even once a week? You can be a C.O.P. volunteer as you walk your dog in the neighborhood!! The class is free, and no prior registration is needed. Contact Officer J. Dave McDonald at 207-6086 office, 394-0626 cell or email him at James.McDonald@sanantonio.gov to learn more information and when the next class will be held. The class lasts 4 hours and is held monthly at the substation at 13030 Jones Maltsberger 78247 just past McAllister Park. The time flew by because it is so interesting!

Would you like to research a concern or a question about Code Compliance? You can search online at www.sanantonio.gov/codesrch.asp
