BROADWAY METHODIST NEWS

The Word On Broadway series of free concerts continues on February 12 with "Rock O' My Soul," a festival of spirituals with the Jones High School Choir. Donations will be accepted to the Grady-Rayam Negro Spiritual Scholarship Fund.

March 12 will be "The Story Goes On" with Broadway songs and donations for the Mothers' Milk Bank of Florida. April 9 will be "Raise Your Voice" with songs to 'welcome our neighbors and donations going to Justice for Our Neighbors. The final concert for the 2016-17 season will be May 21. The title is "It's Not That Easy Being Green" with music about the environment and donations to Habitat for Humanity.

All free concerts in this series take place in the sanctuary of Broadway United Methodist Church and begin at 3:30 p.m. There are always refreshments following each concert in the fellowship hall downstairs. The Rollins College Department of Music is responsible for the content of these programs and Broadway United Methodist Church is grateful for their cooperation.

Broadway United Methodist Church has been on the corner of Broadway and Amelia streets in the Lake Eola Heights neighborhood for 95 years. So we will celebrate its 95th Anniversary with a Homecoming Picnic on April 30. Everyone and anyone who has ever attended Broadway is welcome and encouraged to come for this historic moment in the life of this church.

All our neighbors are welcome at the Palm Sunday (April 9) and Easter Sunday (April 16) services.

We hope to hold an event of some kind on a monthly basis -- so keep your ears open for exciting things to happen "at the garden" this year!

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

By Tracey Jacobs

Hey Neighbors, Did you know that active neighborhood watch groups that work closely with the Orlando police by reporting suspicious activity and look out for their neighbors have safer neighborhoods?

The OPD Neighborhood Watch Unit would like to assist us in maintaining an active Neighborhood Watch Group. If you are interested in learning more about residential security, hands only CPR or preventing identity theft, let me know and I can schedule it for our 2nd Quarter Neighborhood Watch Meeting.

To date, we have 159 members and 26 Block Captains. We are looking for neighborhood watch members who live on Hillcrest, Christor Place, Hibiscus, Broadway Court, Mt. Vernon, Ruth Lane, Hillman, Cathcart, N. Eola, Summerlin, and Hyer. It's easy to participate ... if you see something, say something by calling 9-1-1. Remember to let them know you are a member of the LEHHNA's NW Group. Send an email to trj@86plaq.com if you would like to join us.

Stay alert and bright.
