President's Report

- Pinewood Elementary had an Angel Tree Program this year. George Palmer purchased items for a boy and girl as a contribution from the HOA.
- Trees Charlotte Project at Madison Central Park was held October 20th. There was good support from more than 50 volunteers. Volunteers will water the newly planted trees, however, the weather has been so wet that those volunteers have not been needed yet.
- The Tree Banding grant for this year has been approved. The initial payment was delivered to their office by Tom Im, the Treasurer. Tree banding took place before Thanksgiving. The administrative tasks remain: 1) get the grant monies and 2) make the final payment to SilverDuck.
- One of our neighbors, Bill Helmke, received a grant from his employer to help the Madison Park HOA put more benches and picnic tables in Madison Central Park. More information to come.
- The Madison Park HOA applied for a Placemaking Grant for the intersection of Wedgwood and Seneca Place along with more than 78 neighborhoods which also submitted proposals. A more detailed proposal was submitted on December 17th.
- There was a special meeting of the membership of the Madison Park Homeowners Association on Monday October 29th. An updated set of bylaws was discussed, voted on and approved. They are available www.madisonparkcharlotte.org.

- On October 23rd, Russell Hodges and Doug Welton attended the CLTMeckGov Meet and Eat on Otts Street, in the Belmont community. The event provided the opportunity to visit with representatives from the Charlotte Mecklenburg Library and Parks and Recreation.
- 5626 Murrayhill Home is 10 days away from a Writ of Possessi
- Property Insurance has been purchased.
- Nominations are being received for the 2019 Madison Park HOA Board.
