- b. Accept or seek, on behalf of himself or any other person, any financial advantage or gain of other than nominal value which may be offered as a result of the volunteer's or paid staff's affiliation with the American Red Cross.
- c. Publicly utilize any American Red Cross affiliation in connection with the promotion of partisan politics, religious matters, or positions on any issue not in conformity with the official position of the American Red Cross.

- e. Knowingly take any action or make any statement intended to influence the conduct of the American Red Cross in such a way as to confer any financial benefit on any person, corporation, or entity in which the individual has a significant interest or affiliation.
- f. Operate or act in any manner that is contrary to the best interests of the American Red Cross.

In the event that the volunteer's or paid staff's obligation to operate in the best interests of the American Red Cross conflicts with the interests of any organization in which the individual has a financial interest or affiliation, the individual shall disclose such conflict to the American Red Cross upon becoming aware of it, shall absent himself or herself from the room during deliberations on the matter, and shall refrain from participating in any decisions or voting in connection with the matter.
